Washington State Community College follows an open admission policy, except in health sciences programs. This form is not used to evaluate a student for admission; it is for information in the maintenance of student records. An additional application must be filed for each of the health sciences programs. No person is excluded from participation in or denied benefits from any program or opportunity at Washington State Community College on the basis of race, color, gender, disability, religion, ancestry or national origin.

I agree to let Washington State Community College, its subsidiaries and its agents publish or make other public use of my photograph, video and/or other reproductions. Washington State has the responsibility of inspecting, approving and selecting these for their use. Washington State will not make any deliberate distortion or other alteration to these items. I agree not to hold Washington State liable for any distortion or other alteration that may result.

The information I have submitted on this application form is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
