Associate Degree Nursing Traditional

THE PROGRAM:

The Associate of Applied Science degree (AAS) in Nursing provides classroom and clinical experiences to prepare graduates to become exemplary members of the health care team. Graduates of the Associate Degree Nursing program are eligible to take the National Council Licensure Exam for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN). Registered Nurses provide ongoing patient care and support, promote healthy lifestyles, and coordinate all aspects of patient care in acute and long-term care facilities, as well as other community settings.

Admission to the ADN program is a selective process; students accepted for college admission must complete an additional program application for consideration. The curriculum includes general education, natural sciences, and nursing courses. If the student chooses, non-nursing courses may be completed before beginning the nursing curriculum. All nursing courses must be completed in sequence within three years of the start of the program. If the sequence is interrupted, the student may apply for readmission to the program (See Student Handbook). A grade of "C" or better is required in all support courses; a grade of "B" or better is required in all ADN courses.

The Associate Degree Nursing program offers both educational and career mobility. In addition to a broad range of employment opportunities, graduates may choose to advance their nursing education through baccalaureate (BSN) or advanced practice (MSN) programs.

CAREER SKILLS:

In addition to knowledge gained in nursing courses, graduates of the Associate Degree Nursing program gain valuable career skills for the health care environment. The graduate will demonstrate competence, caring, and critical thinking skills in providing safe, effective nursing care. The graduate will also demonstrate personal behaviors consistent with professional and employer expectations for the Registered Nurse.

Essential Skills and Functional Abilities for Nursing Students

The Associate Degree Nursing Program is committed to equal access for all qualified program applicants and thus has identified technical standards essential to the delivery of safe effective care while enrolled as a student in the program. These standards determine the student's ability to acquire knowledge and develop the clinical skills required by the curriculum. The student must meet these standards throughout their course of study in the Associate Degree Nursing program for successful program completion.

Intent: All students applying for admission to the Associate Degree Nursing Program need to be aware of the essential skills and functional abilities required of all students in the program. Enrollment into the Associate Degree Nursing program is contingent upon signed submission of this form acknowledging that the applicant has read the form and is able (with or without accommodation) to meet the standards as described below. This form must accompany the student application to the program.

Certain functional abilities are essential for the delivery of safe, effective nursing care. These abilities are essential in the sense that they constitute core components of nursing practice, and there is a high probability that negative consequences will result for patient/clients under the care of nurses who fail to demonstrate these abilities. A program preparing students for the practice of nursing must attend to these essential functional abilities in the education and evaluation of its students.

References used in the development of these standards include The Functional Abilities Essential for the Delivery of Safe, Effective Nursing Care (1999 descriptive research study conducted by the National Council of State Boards of Nursing), and Core Components and Competencies of A.D.N. graduates developed by the Council of Associate Degree Nursing of the National League for Nursing (1999)

Behavioral examples are not considered to be complete. Reasonable accommodation will be directed toward providing an equal educational opportunity for students with disabilities while adhering to the standards of nursing practice for all students. Students with documented need for accommodations should contact the Office of Disability Services at 740-374-8716 ext. 2503.

All students are reminded that the Ohio Board of Nursing has very specific requirements for anyone seeking modifications of the NCLEX examination procedures. The process to be followed may be found on the Board's web site at <http://www.nursing.ohio.gov/>.

I hereby attest that I have read and understand the Essential Skills and Functional Abilities necessary for successful program completion. I further attest that I am able to meet these Essential Skills and Functional Abilities with or without reasonable accommodations, consistent with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

For Applicants Who May Have a Criminal Record...

Sections of the Ohio Revised Code (O.R.C.)* may prohibit employment of individuals who have been convicted of specific felonies and misdemeanors. These individuals are restricted by Ohio law to provide nursing care to:

1. Older adults in Passport Agencies;
2. Children and older adults in home health settings;
3. Older adults in hospice programs;
4. Older adults in adult day care programs; and
5. Older adults in adult care facilities (nursing homes).

Fingerprinting is required when taking the nursing licensure examination, and is part of a background check when seeking employment in the above agencies. In addition, satisfactory criminal background checks are required by agencies that provide supervised clinical practice while a student nurse.

After completing any nursing program and applying to become a Registered Nurse, each graduate must provide the State Board of Nursing with information about conviction(s) of any felonies, or any felonies or misdemeanors related to violations of any municipal, county, state or federal drug law (including driving while intoxicated), and any crimes involving gross immorality or moral turpitude. After considering the applicant's record, the State Board of Nursing may deny permission to take the licensure examination (or deny licensure) to individuals who have been convicted of certain felonies or misdemeanors. The Board of Nursing has no statutory authority to advise as to whether an individual will be permitted to take the licensure examination or be able to become licensed until the individual actually applies to the Board for examination.

Individuals seeking a degree in nursing need to be aware of laws governing application for licensure, standards for professional nursing practice, and employment as a nurse. The Director of the Associate Degree Nursing Program can discuss, in confidence, any individual situation.
