

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Preamble

Washington State Community College (WSCC, College, or college) has a high standard of conduct for members of its college community, including students. Consistent with the educational mission of the College, WSCC students are expected to perform all work honestly, maintain prescribed academic standards, pay all debts to the college, and respect the property and rights of others. To ensure the maintenance of an environment conducive to the attainment of the educational mission of WSCC, the President is authorized to establish such rules and regulations as are deemed appropriate and necessary for the orderly operation of the college. In addition to these rules, the behaviors enumerated under Academic, Behavioral, and Safety Misconduct may result in penalties up to and including expulsion from the college. Should the concern involve allegations of violations of students' civil rights, including but not limited to sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, and/or harassment, the matter will be referred to the College's EEO officer for disposition.

Overview of Conduct Expectations

The student conduct process at WSCC is not intended to punish students. Rather, it exists to protect the interests of the College community and to challenge those whose behavior is not in accordance with our policies. Sanctions are intended to challenge students' moral and ethical decision-making and to help them bring their behavior into accord with the expectations of the WSCC community. When a student is unable to conform his/her behavior to community expectations, the student conduct process may determine that he/she should no longer share in the privilege of participating in the WSCC community.

Students should be aware that the student conduct process is different from criminal and civil court proceedings. Procedures and rights in student conduct proceedings are conducted with fairness to all, but do not include the same protections of due process afforded by the courts. Due process, within these procedures, assures timely written notice and a hearing before an objective decision-maker.

Students continue to be subject to city, state, and federal laws while at WSCC, and allegations, charges or violations of those laws may also constitute violations of the Student Code of Conduct. In such instances, WSCC may proceed with disciplinary action under the Student Code of Conduct independently of any criminal proceeding involving the same conduct and may impose sanctions for violation of the Student Code of Conduct even if such criminal proceeding is not yet resolved or is resolved in the student's favor.

No student will be found in violation of WSCC policy without information showing by a preponderance

- of the evidence that a policy violation occurred.
- In WSCC's sole discretion, sanctions will be proportionate to the severity of the violation(s).

Jurisdiction

The following explains, among other things, when this Student Code of Conduct applies.

1. The Student Code of Conduct at WSCC will apply to conduct that occurs on WSCC premises or WSCC property, at any location of WSCC sponsored activities, and in off-campus buildings occupied by students by virtue of their association with a group/organization given formal registration by WSCC. The Student Code of Conduct may also apply off-campus, when the administration determines that the off-campus conduct affects a substantial interest to WSCC. Including, but not limited to, activities such as college teams traveling to events off campus; Student Senate and recognized clubs/organizations; any student or college sponsored group engaging in an event or activity off campus; off campus internships, community service, and study abroad. A substantial WSCC interest is defined to include:
 - a. An allegation, arrest, charge or conviction of a criminal offense as defined by Ohio law, including repeat violations of any local, state or federal law.
 - b. Any situation where the student presents a danger or threat to the health or safety of him/herself or others.
 - c. Any situation that significantly impinges upon the rights, property or achievements of self or others, or significantly breaches the peace and/or causes social disorder.
 - d. Any situation that is detrimental to the educational interests of WSCC.
2. Each student will be responsible for his or her conduct from the time he or she applies for admission until the actual awarding of a degree, including the academic year, during breaks and between academic terms, before classes begin and after classes end, during periods between terms of actual enrollment, and including conduct whether or not discovered until after a degree is awarded. The Student Code of Conduct will apply to a student's conduct even if the student withdraws from school while a matter is pending.
3. The Student Code of Conduct applies to guests of community members, whose student hosts may be held accountable for the misconduct of their guests. Visitors to and guests of WSCC are also protected by the Student Code of Conduct, and may initiate grievances for violations of the Student Code of Conduct committed against them.
4. Student organizations may be charged with violations of the Student Code of Conduct for behavior occurring on or off campus. A student organization and its officers may be held collectively or individually responsible when violations of the Student Code of Conduct by those associated with the group or organization have received the tacit or overt consent or encouragement of the leaders, officers, or spokespersons. While student organizations not registered by WSCC are exempt from this Student Code of Conduct, student members of such organizations may be held accountable for their behavior under this Student Code of Conduct.

When considering allegations involving collective responsibility, WSCC may make individual findings with respect to the involvement of each student.

5. WSCC will treat an attempt to commit a violation listed in the Student Code of Conduct as if the attempted conduct had been completed.
6. WSCC reserves the right to initiate an allegation and to initiate conduct proceedings without a formal allegation by the victim or witnesses of misconduct.
7. Behavior conducted online such as harassment delivered by e-mail can subject students to WSCC conduct action. Blogs, web pages, social networking sites and other modes of electronic communication are in the public sphere, are not private, and can subject a student to allegations of misconduct. WSCC does not seek out this information, but may take action if and when such information is brought to the attention of WSCC officials.
8. Any question of interpretation or application of the Student Code of Conduct shall be referred to the Chief Enrollment and Student Success Officer or designee for final determination.

2. Acts of plagiarism, including but not limited to, the following:
 - a. Submitting an assignment purporting to be the student's original work which has been wholly or partly created by another person.
 - b. Presenting as one's own the ideas, organization, or wording of another person without acknowledgment of sources.
